Instructions: Per statute, please describe how your school district or charter school considered input from the community in developing or revising your Continuous Improvement Plan.

Community Involvement in Plan Development - REQUIRED

The Notus District involves parents and stakeholders through Notus Elementary and Notus Jr. Sr. High School Parent Advisory Committees, PTO, and Notus Boosters Club, etc. during the school year. The parent committees review and discuss the district plan and give feedback regarding implementation and needs assessments. The Board of Trustees and public participation is solicited throughout the entire process through a board created committee that meets regularly throughout the school year. Information is provided through our district website and through other forms of social media. Parents are also provided with information and a chance to add comments at annual events that are held at both schools. Those events include parent teacher conferences, STEM night, senior project presentation night as well as senior project planning night for parents. Additionally, the Board of Trustees has convened a Continuous Improvement Committee that will meet regularly to discuss data checkpoints relative
